

IDIOMS ABOUT WATER

Jonė Švanaitė 8a

#1 - A Fish Out Of Water

= feel uncomfortable, like you don't belong in a particular situation.

“I felt like a fish out of water at my new school.”

#2 - In Deep Water

= in a difficult situation – especially one that is beyond the level of your abilities – or in trouble.

“The Democrats are in deep water over their plans for tax increases.”

#3 - In Hot Water

= in trouble, usually when somebody will be angry at you or you will be punished.

“Emails that criticize others can land you in hot water, so be careful what you write.”

#4 - Water Under The Bridge

= this idiom refers to something that has happened in the past and can't be changed (so there's no point worrying about it).

“Yes, we did have our disagreements but that's water under the bridge now.”

#5 - Test The Waters

= to test the waters means trying to discover a little more about a situation before you go ahead and become very involved.

“Candidates like to test the waters before running for office.”

SOURCES

<https://www.espressoenglish.net/10-english-idioms-with-the-word-water/>

<http://dictionary.cambridge.org/>